Ren is the captain of a spaceship.
She will fly the rocket to Mars.

Ren has work to do on the red planet. She needs to test rocks and soil to see if there is life on the planet.

Ren flies the ship around the moon.
It takes a long time to get to Mars.
She looks at all of the stars and thinks about the planets that orbit them.

The rocket has arrived.
It is in Mars' orbit with its two moons.
Ren lands the ship down on the planet's surface.

She leaves the ship
with a digging tool.
She is in a spacesuit.
Ren cannot breathe
the air, so she needs
an air tank on her back.

She walks far away from the ship.
Mars is full of large, rocky hills.

Scientists tell Ren of a good place to dig.

Here are the right rocks for the test.
The scientists want to see if there was life on Mars long ago.

Ren collects the rocks
to do tests on them.

Ren checks in on the bot that lives on Mars. Its name is Curiosity.

The bot digs up rocks as well.
It takes a picture of Ren to send to Earth.

It's time to leave the red planet
and head back home.

Ren travels past all of the galaxies and stars. She must get the rocks to the scientists.

Captain Ren's job is done. She tells us all about what she saw on Mars.

The scientists think that Mars used to have life. It used to be green and blue like Earth!

Well done Captain Ren.
Time to get ready for another trip.

I'M FREE! HERE'S HOW...

Bookbot books are free, high quality decodable readers based on the order of sounds introduced in the Jolly Phonics early literacy program.

We're delighted to offer them to you to download and print at no cost. But it would be great if you could link to our page www.bookbotkids.com/phonics-books from your school's website to help support us.

How can we offer Bookbot books for free? Each book is funded by our passionate community who believe in creating an extensive library of decodable readers to inspire and bring confidence to children learning to read. You can support us too: please contribute to www.bookbotkids.com/phonics-books.
