Dino Round-up

Students will play Dino Round-Up, a variation of Cops and Robbers. It's time for the baby dinosaurs to come back to their nest for the night, but they are too busy having a fun time playing! Their parents now need to go and catch them to bring them home to their nest. How many babies can the dino mom and dad catch? Find out in this fun game of tag!

Instructions- Choose a play area with lots of obstacles for the player to hide behind. Designate one area to be the Dinosaur Nest, otherwise known as Jail in Cops and Robbers. Preferably an area with jungle gym equipment or balls to play with to keep players occupied once they have been caught. Choose two students to be the Parent Dinosaurs. All the other students will be their babies. To play the game, the parents will go to the center of the play area, close their eyes, and count to thirty. During this time all the dino babies will hide. When the parents are done counting, they will run around to catch their babies. Players do not need to stay hidden. They can run around to keep from getting caught. When a player is caught, they will be sent to the Dinosaur Nest where they will stay until the next round.

Instructions:

Allow your students some homework time. If they need help let them know you can help them. If they do not have any homework they can have some reading time, or they can have free time to go outside and play.
