

Samantha was back with her mom at last.
"Thank you," she said to her friends with a smile.

7

SAMANTHA SLOTH IS LOST

STEM Tot®

Written by Lindsay Stansberry,
Kit Krupp, and Jake Hunter.

Artwork by Bella Hunter.

Copyright STEM Taught MMXXIV

Next, the bird was back with a frog. "Is this your mom?" it asked. "No, my mom moves very slowly," said Samantha.

5

A kind bird saw Samantha in the grass.
"What does your mom look like?" it asked.
"She has brown hair like me," said Samantha.

2

Samantha lives in a tree with her mom. One day, she fell out. Oh no! Samantha is lost.

1

Soon, the bird found Samantha's mom. She was up in the tree moving very slowly. Samantha's new friends helped her up the tree.

6

The bird was soon back with a monkey. "Is this your mom? it asked. "No, my mom has three toes like me," said Samantha.

3

Next, the bird had a tapir. "Is this your mom?" it asked. "No, my mom has a short tail like me," said Samantha.

4